Something Personal

Born in Panama City, Florida, I grew up singing in a small Methodist Church. A love of music was instilled in me by both my father who performed professionally and my mother who sang her faith to me every day. As a result, the message in both word and song became a very important part of my life and I vowed to be as much a communicator in the “song” part as possible. Musical studies and training brought me into leadership roles wherever God planted me.

I found myself engaged as soloist and/or directing music in Charlotte, NC for Park Road United Methodist Church; Atlanta, GA for Grace United Methodist Church; Smithtown, NY for St. Andrews Lutheran and for the past ten years was the Worship Team Leader for Christ Lutheran Church here in Las Vegas.

My husband, Ron and I have been in Las Vegas since 1992. We have two daughters: Shana who is a film editor in Atlanta, GA and Stacy who works in a Literacy Program for children in at risk schools in Los Angeles.
